MCGUIGAN THE SHORTLIST

Riesling 2011

- Region Eden Valley, South Australia.
- Colour Light straw.
- Aroma A delightful mix of citrus, zest and floral notes headline the bouquet of this wine with subtle hints of green apple.
- Palate This wine has a fresh, crisp and zippy palate with brilliant fresh cut lime acidity and a lovely minerality that the Eden Valley is renowned for. Drinking well now, it also has tremendous cellaring potential.
- Food Riesling is a delightful food wine and its crisp acidity will match perfectly with freshly shucked oysters and seafood.
- Notes The Shortlist range is a selection of multi-award winning wines that represent the unique flavour and character of each varietal as well as the influence of the terroir on the wine. Each bottle is individually numbered.
The fruit for this wine comes from two vineyards in the Eden Valley Region, with the warm sunny days allowing flavour ripening while the cool nights help retain natural acids in the fruit to allow for the Rieslings great ageing ability. The grape must was chilled on arrival and immediately pressed lightly in an air bag press to minimise bruising. The juice was then fermented cool to retain natural aromas and the wine lightly fined and clarified before bottling.
- Cellar 10+ years
- Tech 11.5%
