Notes The McGuigan Bin Semillon is our most awarded wine. It is a perfect example of why the Hunter Valley is renowned as the premier region for Semillon in the world. This true Hunter style Semillon is a fresh light wine when young, then develops rich honey and toast characters with extended cellaring.

The growing season was challenging, but rain in December filled out the fruit. The berry sizes were small with bunch counts down on last year, but the crops held up well. A run of dry weather in January, while maintaining good moisture in the ground, allowed the vines to remain stress free and ensured another good vintage for the region, making three in a row.

Cellar Suitable for current consumption or long term cellaring where it will develop into a classic toasty Hunter Style.

Tech Alc 11.0%
